A Pictorial Guide to the Lakeland Fells is a series of seven books by A. Wainwright, detailing the fells (the local word for hills and mountains) of the Lake District in northwest England. Written over a period of 13 years from 1952, they consist entirely of reproductions of Wainwright's manuscript, hand-produced in pen and ink with no typeset material.

Yemen is in crisis. Mired in a civil war, its infrastructure and economy have been destroyed, and the violence is taking a desperate toll on most of the population, with famine conditions in the worst-hit regions and a cholera epidemic sweeping through the country. Needless to say, it is not safe to travel here.

There are numerous photos and postcards of Aden (Yemen), the next stop of the expedition, as well as images taken while traveling by train to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The majority of the photos in this album depict Emperor Haile Selassie, his palace and family, ceremonies and dinners, foreign dignitaries, the urban landscape, and government and religious assemblies.
